Opening

The virtual award presentation ceremony will be facilitated by Philipa Duthie, RSA Oceania Director

Welcome

Welcome on behalf of The Royal Society of Arts Oceania by Mark Strachan, RSA Oceania Chair

Convenor Keynote

The writers road – movin' down the highway, or dunked in a ditch!

A keynote address by the Award Convenor, Lawrence Arnold, discussing the ups and downs of the career writer on the road to success. During the keynote, the awarded book 2020 will be announced and analysed as an example of writing inspiration for future career writers.

The medallion will be presented digitally by the Convenor and the awarded writer will respond.

Writers in the room

The traditional Writers in the Room engagement with the Finalist Book writers, members of the Award Committee, TACBA alumni, and future writers, will be facilitated digitally by Philipa.

Award medallion

The award medallion will be presented by the Convenor at a mutually convenient time.
