any questions about the event.

Opening

The virtual award presentation ceremony will be facilitated by Philipa Duthie, RSA Oceania Director

Welcome

Welcome on behalf of The Royal Society of Arts Oceania by Mark Strachan, RSA Oceania Chair

Convenor Keynote

The War of the Worlds, or The War of the Words ... how career writers help readers manage career and work life in times of uncertainty

A keynote address by the Award Convenor, Lawrence Arnold, discussing how career writers foster reader solutions for career-threatening problems. During the keynote, the awarded book 2021 will be announced, and analysed – as an example of writing to inspire readers.

The medallion will be presented digitally by the Convenor and the awarded writer will respond.

Writers in the room

The traditional Writers in the Room engagement with the Finalist Book writers, members of the Award Committee, TACBA alumni, and future writers, will be facilitated digitally by Philipa.

Award medallion

The award medallion will be presented by the Convenor at a mutually convenient time.
